

Press release: Serbia joins the PRACE initiative

For release: 13.2.2009

Serbia joins the PRACE initiative

PRACE, the Partnership for Advanced Computing in Europe, has a new member country - Serbia - which joined the initiative on 16 December 2008.

The overall number of countries in the initiative has increased to 18 as Serbia signed the Memorandum of Understanding.

Several additional countries have also expressed their interest in the initiative. Thus, the coverage of PRACE is getting wider in Europe.

The following countries collaborate in PRACE: Germany (project coordinator), Austria, Cyprus, Finland, France, Greece, Ireland, Italy, The Netherlands, Norway, Poland, Portugal, Serbia, Spain, Sweden, Switzerland, Turkey and UK.

About PRACE: The Partnership for Advanced Computing in Europe (PRACE) prepares the creation of a persistent pan-European HPC service, consisting of several tier-0 centres providing European researchers with access to capability computers and forming the top level of the European HPC ecosystem. PRACE is a project funded in part by the EU's 7th Framework Programme. The PRACE project receives funding from the European Community's Seventh Framework Programme (FP7/2007-2013) under grant agreement n° RI-211528.
